

HOPE OUT LOUD 10

Peace & Arts Festival

music. poetry. kids activities. speakers. rally. fun for everyone.

SUNDAY. SEPTEMBER 11TH
1-5pm • FREE!

On the great lawn of
The Church of The Good Shepherd
155 Wyllys Street, Hartford, CT

Dedication of SILENT WISHES, UNCONSCIOUS DREAMS & PRAYERS...FULFILLED, a sculpture by Carl Pope, Jr. at 2:30pm

A celebration of creativity and vibrancy of Connecticut's advocacy service, activist, and arts community. Good music and spoken word performances, inspiring speakers, and family activities for children of all ages. Spend the afternoon. Bring a picnic. It's a concert, rally, playground, remembrance, a day of inspiration for renewal and commitment.

Sponsors:

The Connecticut Coalition for Peace & Justice (CCPJ)
Church of The Good Shepherd
West Hartford Citizens for Peace And Justice
Greater Hartford Peace Network
The Coalition to Strengthen the Sheldon/Charter Oak Neighborhood

Supported in part by the Greater Hartford Arts Council and the City of Hartford

The Hope Out Loud Festival began as a response to 9/11. It is a shared call for peaceful sustainable resolution of conflict in our towns and in our world through equity and social justice.

visit www.hopeoutloud.org