

The 7th Annual Hope Out Loud Peace and Music Festival Sunday, September 14, 2008 12 - 6 PM Bushnell Park, Hartford

HOPE OUT LOUD 7

A concert, a festival, a rally, a playground, a picnic, a remembrance, a day providing inspiration for renewal and recommitment.

“Building Community: Creating an Us without a Them.”

Now in its 7th year, The Hope Out Loud Peace and Music Festival began as a response to 9/11: a shared vision of peace, transcending the absence of war, through non-violent conflict resolution, economic equity, social justice and sustainable, environmental co-habitation in our towns and in our world.

On September 14th we all gotta that a peaceful world is possible

Celebrate PEACE & JUSTICE
with music, speakers, poetry, family activities & more

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition for Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC)

Supported in part by the Greater Hartford Arts Council and the City of Hartford
