

An Evening with Paul Baker Hernandez
Eco-Minstrel performing
Songs of Loveliness and Courage

Saturday March 20th
6:00 PM

Quaker Meetinghouse
144 South Quaker Lane
West Hartford

Entrance by donation

Sponsored by the
Hartford/Ocotol Sister City Project

Paul Baker Hernandez lives in Nicaragua. He is the founder of a group of musicians and artists, Echoes of Silence, “Artists with dirt under their fingernails” which supports community health, education, ecological, cultural, peace and justice projects.

Paul will entertain us with songs and stories about cell phones, dictators, Starbucks & more.

Paul's “green guitar”, homemade from discarded furniture and a toilet seat, has been creating music for 40 years.

<http://echoesofsilence.pbworks.com>