

Friday, June 9

Charlie King Performing Live to Promote the Visit of the Golden Rule, the World's First Protest Ship, Which Sails Against Nuclear Weapons

Daytime Sails on the Golden Rule

10:00 AM - 4:00 PM
from New London City Pier

Evening Concert with Charlie King

7:00 PM - 9:30 PM
(doors at 6:45 PM)

at St. James Episcopal Church Hall, 76 Federal St., New London

View historic exhibits on the Golden Rule's connection to the Committee for Nonviolent Action, and War Resisters League; listen to the experiences and current mission of the crew members; and enjoy Charlie King's unique brand of folk music and political satire. The historic exhibits and crew speakers will be available on Saturday night, too.

Learn the story of this historic ship at bit.ly/wn-golden Receive updates to our weekend schedule and RSVP at bit.ly/vptgolden

*Rain location for activities at City Pier will be St. James Episcopal Church
We will be accepting donations on both nights*

Organized by the CT Committee for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons: Hartford Catholic Worker, St. Francis House, Voluntown Peace Trust, War Resisters League — contact us at nuclearbanct@gmail.com

Saturday, June 10

Joyce Katzberg Performing Live at a Daytime Rally with Songs & Speakers to Stand with the Golden Rule Against Nuclear Weapons

Rally with Songs & Speakers

2:00 PM - 5:00 PM
on New London City Pier

Peace symbol tile painting (for all ages), a "Peace Regatta" on the river, and live music from Joyce Katzberg and other artists (TBA). Some musicians will stay for the evening gathering, as well.

Potluck Dinner

6:00 PM - 7:00 PM
at St. James Episcopal Church Hall

Evening Gathering with Songs, Speakers, and a Short Film

7:00 PM - 9:00 PM
at St. James Episcopal Church Hall